2015 KSU Saxophone Day Sunday, November 15, 2015

- I would highly recommend bringing something extra to eat in the late afternoon considering dinner is not available. If families are interested in eating dinner after the concert, downtown Kent does have several restaurants to choose from!
- Jeans are acceptable to wear for the day, and students should also wear Louisville attire if possible. We will probably wear our Saxophone Day shirts for the evening concert.
- Please prepare several performance-ready reeds well in advance for this event. Instruments need to be in good working order and cleaned.
- Exhibits will be open throughout the day. Students will have the opportunity to play and purchase a variety instruments, accessories, and other resources. I would recommend that students bring extra money in case they want to buy supplies from the exhibits.
- Family and friends are encouraged to attend the closing concert featuring the saxophone ensembles and competition soloists. After the closing concert, students will need to have their own transportation home.

As always, please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about this special event! Additional information can be found on the Saxophone Day website or by contacting KSU's saxophone professor.
